MANDATORY: Sporadic monthly attendance is prohibited and hopefully there will be no absences in April or May before the performances. If injured, students are asked to sit and observe their classes during April/May to avoid missing important choreography. Classes will be incorporating choreography for the recital numbers and will include dance technique. Teachers have the right to dismiss any student from the show due to missed classes/rehearsals or if attitude or discipline problems develop. Should this be necessary, tuition and costume costs cannot be refunded.

CLASSES END: Classes will continue after the recital through May 18, 2019. Dress rehearsal and recital, May 4th & 5th,

2019 count as 2 classes for the month of May. (To quote your signed registration agreement "Our policy must be that what you are purchasing is not a class at a time, but a reserved place in that class. There is no provision for credit to be issued. Tuition is not refundable, and no adjustment can be made for the number of days or classes in a given month or for days missed due to illness or any personal inconveniences.")

COSTUMES: Once ordered, sizes cannot be changed and any alterations are the responsibility of the student/parent. If for any reason a student drops or changes a class after signing this form, the costume must still be purchased and there are no refunds.
